

Toolbox Talk: Hand Grinders

The Hand Grinder is a common tool for the terrazzo trade.

Before use of this machine, you must consider what personal protective equipment is necessary. This machine may produce loud noise, vibration, or dust.

PPE: Gloves, safety glasses, face shield.

Never use grinder without a guard. never place hands near blade.

Inspect machine before each use. Check power cords for cuts or any damage. Look for any loose parts. Never use damaged or defective machines. Always have all parts on grinder, guard, handles. Never remove. If machine is damaged remove from service immediately.

Anyone have a question or comment about the use of Hand Grinders? Please be sure to sign-in on the training certification form.

Figure 1: Hand Grinder

The information provided in the Toolbox talks is for general informational purposes only and intended as a guideline only. All information is provided in good faith: However, NTMA makes no representations of any kind, express or implied, regarding the accuracy, adequacy, validity, reliability, or completeness of any information provided herein.

Refer to local, state and or federal laws for complete standards and regulations regarding the topic.

TOOLBOX TALK SIGN IN FORM

Toolbox Topic Covered: Hand Grinders

Company Name: _____ Date: _____

Training led by: _____

PRINT NAME

SIGNATURE

_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____